WHO WE ARE

As a video production company & creative agency our creative team have wide experience with major broadcast organisations including BBC, ITV, Sky and CNN and our camera crews are highly skilled individuals who have worked across many different genres.

Whether you require an event to be filmed, a television advert produced or content created for your social media, our Square Elephant Productions can provide a wide variety of TV production, animation and print-media options and products for clients and advertising agencies.

Although our main current focus is the production of network TV commercials and fashion films, we also produce EPK's, corporate and online films, social media content, brand design and print advertising and can offer a comprehensive script or presentation writing service.

We have excellent relations with a number of other talent, PR and media organisations and have recently covered events for Colin Jackson's new charity Go Dad Run, Royal Ballet star Fernando Montano's Classical Cabaret and The Art of Being fashion event for iconic British fashion designer Elizabeth Emanuel.

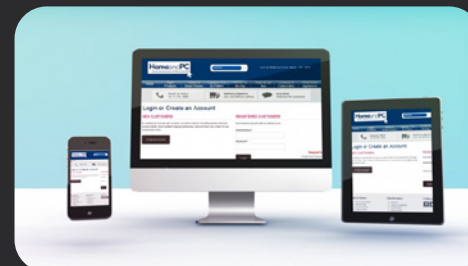

TV ADVERTISING / VIDEO PRODUCTIONS

At Square Elephant Productions we produce high quality and innovative Television and Online adverts to tight deadlines and which will promote and explain your brand in a way that is individually tailored to your company, product and budget.

During the past 12 months we have produced 28 very successful TV adverts that were broadcast across many different networks including Sky, Channel 4, ITV, DAVE, CNN World, Eurosport, Gold, VH1, Nick Jr., Discovery Channel and TV3 in Ireland.

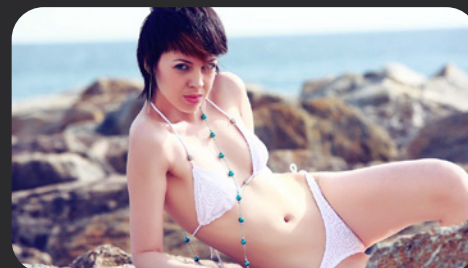

MEDIA PLANNING AND BUYING

We are also able to offer guidance and planning and buying Media through TV advertising agency so that we can ensure that the creative and media arms are working together and you can achieve the best possible advertising package for your campaign budget.

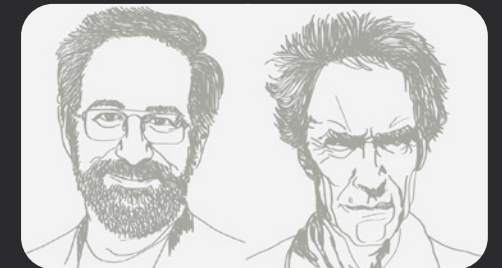

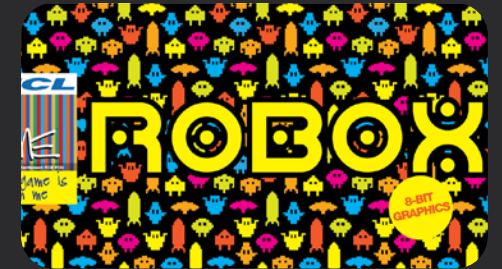

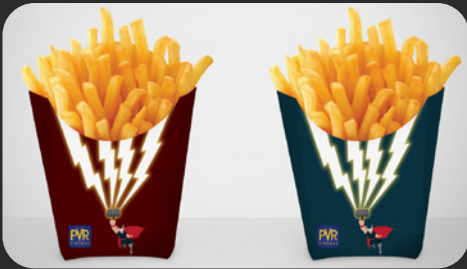

FASHION

We have produced and directed fashion shoots and films for many of our clients, including during London Fashion Week, iconic British fashion designer Elizabeth Emanuel and can organise and cover events using a mix of stills and film cameras.
